1. “Digital Copy” herein means copies of written material in digital form as provided by Microsoft, including without limitation an image file and associated material such as an OCR (optical character recognition) file, and the metadata associated with the file.
2. License and Restrictions. Microsoft hereby grants the Licensee a non-exclusive, revocable, worldwide royalty-free right and license to use, copy, transmit, perform and display, and create derivative works of the Digital Copies for the sole purpose of enabling users of the Licensee and end users of the Licensee’s website to access and use the Digital Copies for educational or research purposes, including limited quantities of printing and downloading by Licensee and its end users, not for further redistribution, and subject to the further limitations and requirements set forth in this agreement. The Licensee will not directly or indirectly:
(a) distribute, publish, rent, sell or otherwise transfer any Digital Copy or derivative work thereof to any third party in tangible form or recorded on physical media, except as provided above with respect to Licensee and its end users or in connection with maintaining back-up copies for the Licensee’s archival or conservation purposes; (b) authorize or knowingly enable any third party (except a third party that manages or operates a Licensee web site under contract with Licensee) to download or host the Digital Copies in bulk; (c) authorize or knowingly enable any third party to access or copy the Digital Copies via automated crawlers, robots, spiders or similar data gathering, mining or extraction methods; or (d) authorize or knowingly enable any third party to use the Digital Copies for revenue-generating purposes. Nothing herein shall be construed to prevent the Licensee from charging its end users or members for print services, downloading or access provided by the Licensee in compliance with the above, or for supplemental material that the Licensee may offer in connection or combination with the Digital Copies. These restrictions must be included in the terms of use for the Licensee website and other services in a form conformant with the terms of this agreement and reasonably acceptable to Microsoft.
3. Security. Licensee will implement technological measures to restrict automated access to the Digital Copies hosted by it and otherwise use reasonable best faith efforts to prevent any unauthorized use of the Digital Copies by or through it. Licensee will not remove proprietary notices, logos, or digital watermarks from the Digital Copy, and will include them in any copies or derivative works thereof. Licensee will promptly notify Microsoft of any unauthorized use of the Digital Copies that comes to Licensee’s attention. Licensee will promptly notify Microsoft of any legal proceeding initiated by Licensee in connection with such unauthorized use and Microsoft may, at its option and expense, participate in any such proceeding, and, in such event, Licensee will provide such authority, information and assistance related to such proceeding as Microsoft may reasonably request to protect its interests.
4. Removal. Upon notice from Microsoft, Licensee will promptly delete, or remove any Digital Copy(ies) from its web sites. If Licensee is informed or becomes aware that a Digital Copy infringes or violates the copyright or other intellectual property right of any third party, it will promptly (i) inform Microsoft, and (ii) delete, remove and/or suspend display of the Digital copy until the issue is resolved to the satisfaction of both parties.
5. NO WARRANTY. ALL INFORMATION, SERVICES, AND DIGITAL COPIES PROVIDED IN CONNECTION WITH THE PERFORMANCE OF THIS AGREEMENT ARE PROVIDED “AS IS” AND WITHOUT ANY WARRANTY OR CONDITION OF ANY KIND, EXPRESS, IMPLIED OR STATUTORY, AND EACH PARTY EXPRESSLY DISCLAIMS ANY AND ALL WARRANTIES INCLUDING ANY
